Background

Christina Hummer has worked as a partner at SAXINGER in Brussels and Vienna since 2010. Since 2002, she has worked for international law firms in both Washington, DC, and Brussels on competition law matters.

After completing her degree in law (Mag.iur.) in 1999 and her doctorate (Dr. iur.) in 2001, she completed a Master of Laws (LL.M.) at New York University in 2002. She also completed a diploma in economics in competition law at King's College in London, UK, in 2007.

Christina Hummer has been an attorney at law in New York since 2003, a solicitor in England & Wales since 2004 and a European lawyer in private practice in Brussels since 2005 and in Vienna since 2009.

Expertise

As Attorney-at-Law (New York), Solicitor (England & Wales), and European registered lawyer (Brussels and Vienna) Christina Hummer advises domestic and foreign companies on European and national competition law. She has extensive experience in antitrust proceedings before the European Commission and national competition authorities, in particular in cartel investigations, merger filings, proceedings relating to abuse of a dominant position and state aid. She also regularly advises on antitrust compliance.

In addition, Christina Hummer regularly publishes and is a speaker at conferences.
