Background

Balázs Jakucs joined SAXINGER's Budapest office in February 2021 as a trainee lawyer. Balázs graduated from Eötvös Loránd University in 2021. During his university years, he worked as an intern in a law firm in Budapest, where among others he gained experience in civil law and sports law, among others. In the summers of 2016 and 2017, Balázs worked in the United States doing social activities for children.

Balázs speaks fluent at English and German.

Expertise

Balázs advises our clients on employment and civil law issues and is actively involved in litigation and non-litigation proceedings. Balázs regularly provides legal advice to clients in the field of real estate law. Besides his activities as a trainee lawyer, he plays basketball at a competitive level.
